

To Run the Tool

- 1. First choose the method of selecting sites for analysis
- 2. Click on the map to choose site(s) using the method. Use drag or zoom on move map to find desired area.
- 3. Click this button to generate or refresh analysis
- 4. If running a new report, click to clear all previously selected sites.

Options

- a. Toggle to change report for individual sites or average results across BGC subzon/variant
- b. Change default settings for climate model and time period weighting for generating CCISS future feasibility ratings
- c. Use Find-A-BEC to highlight the selected BGC on the map
- d. Change background map layers